

It's time for Bingo! Um ... NCMPR-O? Anyway, let's play!

Keep this card handy throughout the conference, and mark the squares as they occur. Once you get an NCMPR-O!, snap a photo and share your winning card to Twitter, Instagram or Facebook. Be sure to use #NCMPRO21 so we can keep track of posts. Winning cards will be entered to win a surprise prize at the end of the conference. The winner, who will be selected at random, will be announced live by NCMPR President Juan Gutierrez. Trust us: It's a pretty great prize. (Note: Even if you share your winning card on multiple platforms, each person will be entered to win just once.)
